15th Biennial Project Archaeology
Coordinator's Conference and
3rd National Archaeology Educator's Conference
Telling Our Story: Connection, Collaboration, & Sustainability

La Crosse, WI
November 5-9, 2018
Draft Agenda

Goals:

1. Collaborate and partner with descendant community members
2. Provide professional development for archaeology educators
3. Build and sustain a national network of archaeology educators
4. Create connections that make an impact and sustain archaeology education

Conference Outcomes:

As a participant in the conference, you will:

1. Have multiple opportunities to learn with and from archaeology educators.
2. Be able to teach K-12 learners (in both formal and informal venues) about archaeology in an effective way that aligns to national standards.
3. Have access to high-quality educational materials that teach cultural understanding, scientific and historical inquiry, and archaeological stewardship.
4. Examine a current publication on partnerships and collaboration in archaeology and establish a solid relationship between collaboration and archaeology education.
5. Learn tools to connect, collaborate, and partner with descendant community members.
6. Examine current issues in curriculum distribution and analyze data to create a more sustainable field.
