How many PA events did you offer and how many people did you reach 1/1/25 – 12/31/25?

Write in the total number of events and people reached. Then give a short explanation of each event (i.e. title, curriculum, lesson, setting, grades, partnerships, or marketing).

Example: 2 teacher workshops, 32 teachers certified; 1 classroom presentation, 36 elementary students; 1 junior archaeology day fair, 130 participants; social studies conference booth, 100 email sign-ups; STEM conference presentation, 20 teachers.

7. Professional development workshops and institutes: _____ Educators certified: _____

8. Facilitator workshops offered (National Staff, Master Teachers, and trained Facilitators offer facilitator workshops to train teachers, archaeologists, and other educators to become PA workshop instructors): _____ Facilitators certified: _____

9. Other Professional Development events (short workshops, peer mentoring, conference presentations): Educators introduced to Project Archaeology:

1. What is the primary purpose of the study?

10. Marketing events (booths, posters, meeting presentation): People exposed to Project Archaeology (estimate people who stopped by booth and/or gave email addresses):

11. Public Education and Outreach events (archaeology fairs, summer camps, teaching Project Archaeology lessons in formal classrooms and informal settings, etc.):

Public reached (all ages, K-12, college, etc.):

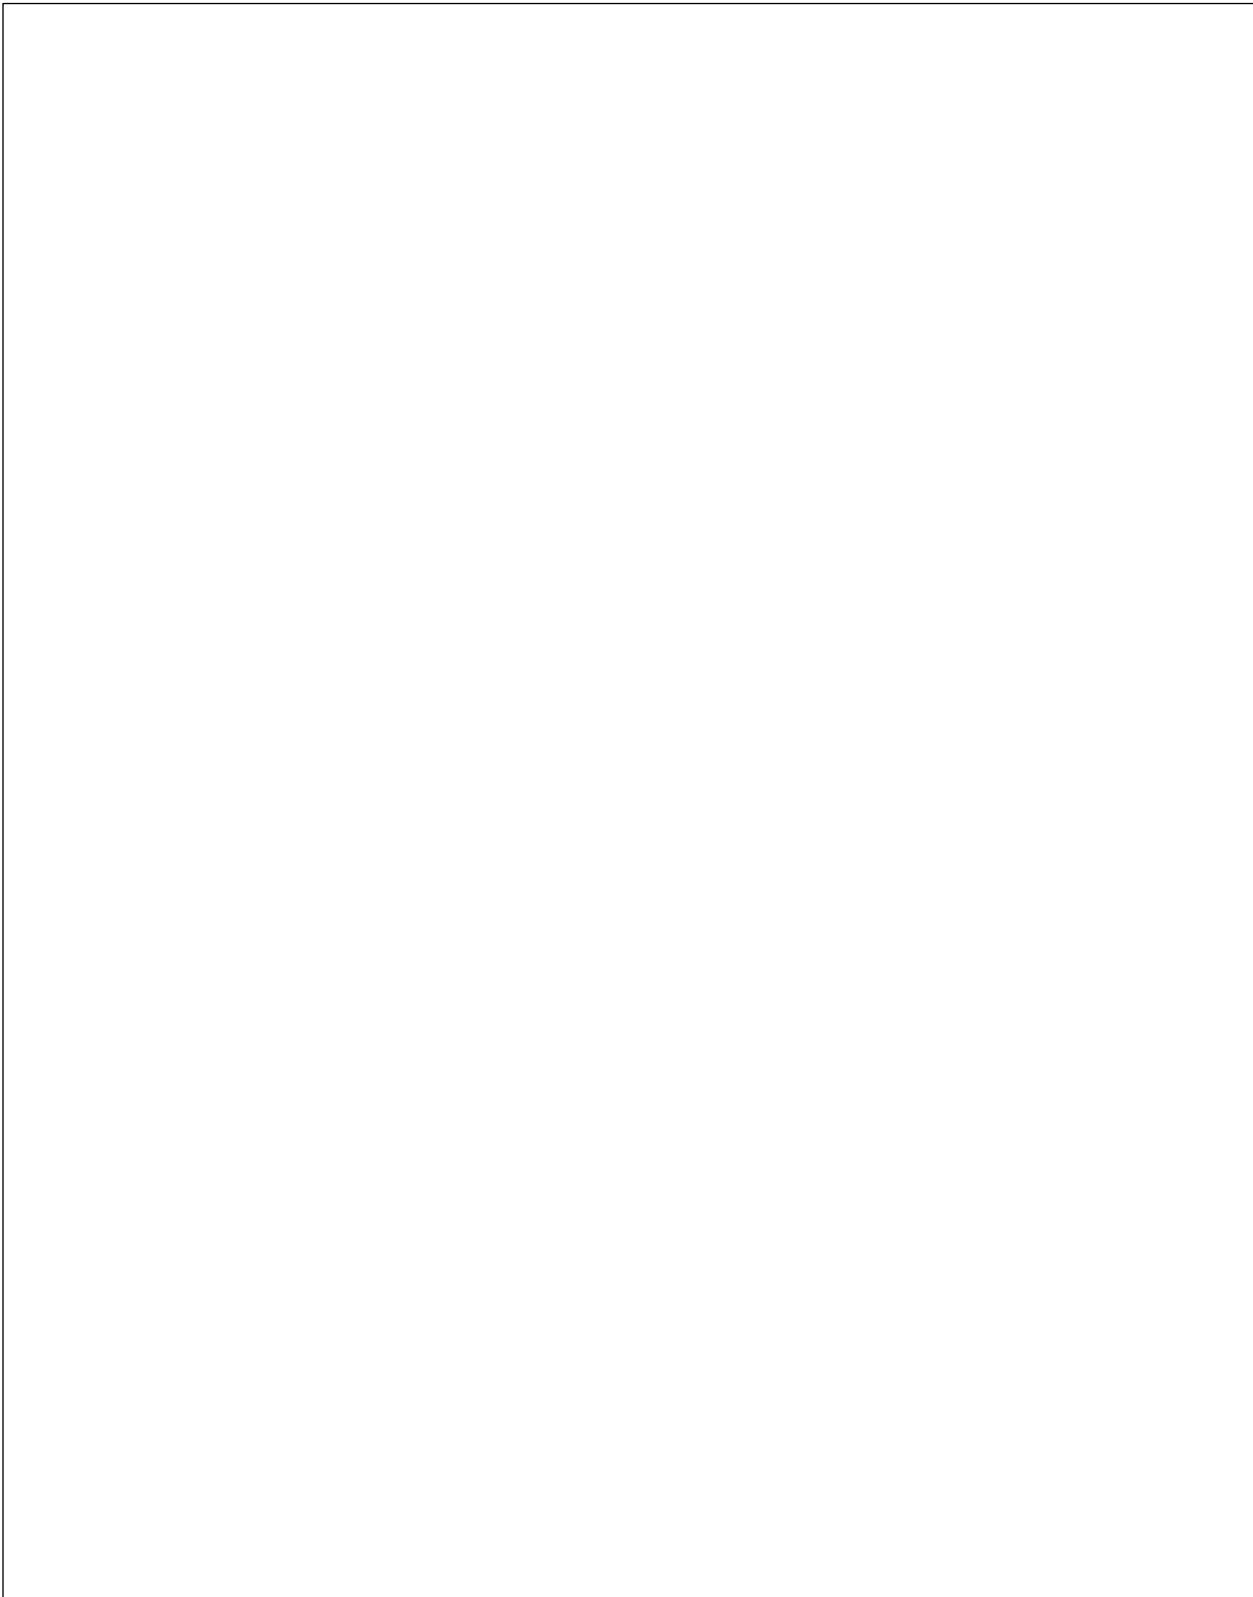

12. How many hours did you volunteer for the Project Archaeology program? (assisting network through blog writing, curriculum writing/reviewing, serving on committee, annual report, consultation, planning, etc.)

1. What is the primary purpose of the study?

13. How much did you receive in donations, grants, or registration contributions to the program?

1. What is the primary purpose of the study? (e.g., to evaluate the effectiveness of a new treatment, to explore a new research question, to describe a population, etc.)

If you have a good story from one of your Project Archaeology events, please write and tell us about it so we can include it in the annual report or a blog post. You can also tell us more about any of your 2025 events and ideas and plans you have for 2026.

A large, empty rectangular box with a thin black border, occupying the central portion of the page. It is intended for the reader to write their response to the request for stories and ideas.
