

 PROJECT
ARCHAEOLOGY
Michigan

Ojibwe Culture & Archaeology Teacher Workshop

3rd – 8th Grade Teacher Workshop

July 14 – 16, 2026

Cost: $60

LOCATION: Seaborg Center
Northern Michigan University
1401 Presque Isle Avenue
Marquette, Michigan 49855

This workshop is supported by a grant from the Institute for Heritage Education

*Discover new ways to engage students with the past!
Hands-on scientific inquiry of social studies content.*

- Award-winning curriculum aligned to standards
- Nashke Games presentation to joyfully learn the Ojibwe language
- Field trip to Marquette Regional History Center and archaeological site
- Cultural presentation by a local Ojibwe educator
- Two graduate university credits (optional $46)

Register by June 1, 2026

www.projectarchaeology.org/events

Scan the QR code

‘Discover the Past — Shape the Future’

Project Archaeology is a national education program designed to develop awareness of archaeological sites, cultivate personal responsibility, and enhance historical literacy and cultural understanding.

- By Elizabeth Lunday

CONTACT US:

For more information contact instructors
Courtney Agenten,
courtney.agenten@projectarchaeology.org and Sue Reichert, sreich13@gmail.com

